150 brave rain for CCP meet

In spite of rain more than 150 persons turned out Monday night for the bond information program at Bay High sponsored by the Citizens for Committee for Progress and Joseph L. Marochino, committee chairman, said he thought the public meeting a real success. To substantiate this Marochino said at least ten people said after the meeting they now favored the bond issue but had been either opposed to or the fence before Monday night's meeting.

A similar meeting Sunday afternoon at Valena C. Jones School drew only about 25 people, mainly Negro, but Marochino said in view of the city's few Negro voters he considered this a satisfactory turnout. At both meetings Mayor John A. Scalfie for commission council and Dr. A. K. Martinovich, Jr., on behalf of the county's physicians, spoke briefly in support of the bond issue. They were followed by Eugene H. Owen, Baton Rouge engineer whose firm prepared the plans for the utility improvement program.

Owen told the audience, an attentive one except when the door to the auditorium squeaked loudly as someone went in or out, details of the proposed three-pronged utility program on which the city will indirectly ly vote March 21 when authority to issue $3,000,000 in revenue bonds and to levy an additional one-half cent sales tax, is voted on. A favorable vote on both propositions is necessary before the utility improvement program can be undertaken. After Owen's presentation more than an hour and a half was spent answering questions from the audience.

A tentative emergency or board of supervisors, who attended the meeting, objected that Daley's proposed legislation made no provision for additional taxes to finance regional planning commissions and asked that before introduction (Cont. on Page 7.)

At the same meeting E. Robert Daley of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board went over a proposed statute he expects to have introduced in the Mississippi legislature this week which would permit the boards of supervisors to make the commission a legal entity.

Other officers elected were Edward H. Randle, Slidell, first vice president; Milton Hill, Gulfport, second vice president; and Robert D. Lader, Piquette, secretary. Besides Colson, Hancock County members of the commission are Leo W. Seal, Jr., and Fred Wagner. Nicholas J. French, president of the Harrison County and one of the best yet, he said. While about $5,000 is due early in March on homestead exemptions and more taxes will come in next month both Hoffman and E.P. Orta, board president, cautioned that the system will still have to cut corners for some time. Hoffman is also making the state audit and indicated there are some other obligations such as transportation notes, etc., to meet. Hoffman recommended payment of a $2,099.80 bill from Martin School Supply for desks at the four-classroom addition at Hancock North Central School, and a $5,300 bill from Central School Supply as first half of the cost of the bleachers at that school's new stadium. Since intakes do not show which fund is to finance this, that must be checked first. Activity fund at HNC is to be checked before a $1,300 bill from Smoky Sporting Supplies dueing back to 1960 is disposed of. A handful of items extruded back to years before the current session. Breakdown of payments showed $25,916.13 from district funds, $18,616.96 from general fund, $7,538.94 from transportation including $6,697.44 for the gas bill from Car Oil since Aug. 1. Also paid was the tuition bill from Bay St. Louis to the Bay St. Louis (Cont. on Page 7.)

Stieffel director

Revise Bay's civil defense

Bay St. Louis' civil defense organization has been revised during the last week with the appointment of Bert Stieffel as director. Stieffel was appointed last Thursday by City Commission Council to succeed Lucien Kidd who resigned after serving for several years as director.

Section chiefs have been named by Stieffel for the various phases of civil defense activity and his brother, Ray Stieffel, Jr., will serve as assistant director. Each section chief will name his own assistant and crews.

Named were Andre Arceneux, transportation; Sam Feruciaro, maintenance; Dr. W. L. McFarland, medical; Joseph Marochino, supply; Gerald Price, policy; Joseph Bermond, fire; John Rutherford, rescue; Teddy Morel, shelter; Hugh Sanford, CBR (chemical, biological and radiological); James Travira, engineering; Harold Stiglet, pharmacy; Joseph Kera, chaplain; Guy Biffin, communications; and Charles Carter, Jr., coordination.

An advisory board has been established with Dan M. Russell, Jr., as chairman. Members are Robert L. Hamilton, Gerald Gex, Michael Haas, A. H. Gregory, H. H. Shattuck, Lucien Kidd, Joseph B. Burrow, Joseph Benvenutti, David Truget, Powell Glass, Jr., and John Damborino.

A tentative emergency or ganization plan already has been established and Stieffel expressed belief that with wholehearted cooperation from the force Bay St. Louis will boost the best civil defense organization in Mississippi within 30 days. He added the city will work hand in hand with Waveland's civil defense for which John Longo is director.

HEART FUND SHORT

Only $1,045 has been collected to date toward a goal of $1,410 for the Hancock County Heart Fund for 1964, according to Mrs. Elus Depero, chairman.

MISS ALLISTON HURT

Catherine Alliston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Alliston, is a patient at Touro Infirmary, New Orleans, with a broken hip suffered in an automobile accident last Saturday on Chef Menteur Highway. She was riding in a car driven by Courtney Coward of Bay St. Louis en route home to spend the weekend when a car from a side street crashed into them. The two young women have positions in New Orleans.

5 GET DIVORCES

Five divorce decrees have been issued by Chancellor William G. Hewes during the last week in Chancery Court. They are as follows: Leah Margaret Tipton vs. Richard Paul Tipton; C. F. Kucera vs. Virginia Wymer Kucera; Laura Chadwick Kalmbach vs. Charles D. Kalmbach, III; Camille A. Onorato vs. Theresa Sherling Onorato; Virgil Eliah Jordan vs. Uneeda Jordan.

JAYCEES PLAN WELCOME

Jaycees and jaycettes will entertain newcomers to the Bay-Waveland area and their children with a social from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the Jaycees home. Refreshments will be served.

SET FOR RED CROSS DRIVE - Thomas J. Garner, right, chairman of Hancock County's Red Cross fund drive, and Reuben F. Gray, vice chairman, prepare for annual solicitation which opens March 1.

Red Cross names 10 for drive

Appointment of 10 leaders for the 1964 Red Cross fund drive which gets under way Sunday has been announced by Thomas J. Garner, campaign chairman. Goal this year is $4,500.

Reuben F. Gray has been named vice chairman while N. L. Carter will head the special donors division. W. Ray Gordon is chairman for solicitation of business firms in Bay St. Louis; W. D. Kellogg for business on the south side of U. S. 90 from the bridge to the truck scales; John J. Kennedy, Corps of Engineers and contractors at Mississippi Test Operations; and John Hilburn, NASA and General Electric Co. at MTO.

Mrs. Eliza Bolleta will spearhead the drive in Bayou LaCrosse; Mrs. William R. Dean and Mrs. William White are co-chairmen for Pearlport, and Thomas O. Logue is in charge at Hancock General Hospital. Tom Piper, assistant ARC field director stationed at Keeler Air Force Base, addressed 23 fund drive volunteers at a meeting last Thursday morning in the fellowship room of First Baptist Church. He explained the operation of Red Cross and discussed details of fund solicitation.

Garner expressed appreciation for the enthusiasm evidenced at the meeting

MTO work force up, 3.3" rain

Rainfall leveled off somewhat during February at Mississippi Test Operations and the construction force continued its upward climb during the week with an over-all count of 726.

Contractor personnel numbered 499, up from 421 last week when the total men on the scene were 693.

The U. S. Weather Bureau reported 3.36 inches of rain recorded through Wednesday for the month which with January's whopping 9.5 total (Cont. on Page 7.)

Open canvass here for first city directory

Initial solicitation has commenced for the first city directory for the Bay St. Louis-Waveland area, according to Jam R. Ison, representative of R. L. Polk Co. of Richmond, Va., city directory publishers.

The directory will list everyone in the area alphabetically including businesses. In the case of individuals it will show their spouse's name, type of work done by the person and by whom he is employed as well as where he lives.

Another section will list streets alphabetically and how to get to the streets. Houses

Preliminary plans prepared by architect Fred Wagner for a 10-classroom addition at Gulfview School and an eight room building at Pearlport to replace the Logtown School, costing an estimated $426,840, were presented to the county board of education Saturday to provide a background for selling its proposed $350,000 bond issue.

Trustees were to meet Wednesday afternoon at Hancock North Central School to see first hand what new construction there should be included in the bond program.

The school board hopes to finance the three projects with the bond issue to supplement what it anticipates from the federal government when it acquires the Logtown plant.

The $222,600 Gulfview project calls for 10 classrooms in a new structure to the north of the existing gymnasium connected by breezeway to the old building. A new cafeteria and kitchen are proposed to the east of the old gym. Building cost is figured at $186,600 and other costs at $36,000.

Wagner was absent due to illness but it was said the addition would be within land boundaries already owned by the school system. Trustees expressed hope state authorities will not require them to buy more land for playground space, which would cost more money.

At Pearlport, the plan is substantially what was presented several months ago by Trustee Charles B. Murphy suggested some revisions in the cafeteria-kitchen and gymnasium arrangement to conserve space. Building cost is figured at $204,240 plus $38,000 for equipment.

Hancock North Central Principal J. D. Penton briefed trustees Saturday on improvements he would like to see at that school including a physical education department with a (Cont. on Page 7.)

Garden pilgrims due soon

First sign of spring after a blustery winter is expected to peak through the soggy ground in early March when the 17th annual pilgrimage sponsored by the Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs moves into the Bay-Waveland area.

The coast-wide tour opens next Sunday, March 8, at Pascagoula-Moss Point and has its second stop here on Tuesday, March 9.

Seven events have been scheduled for the visitors and local residents by Miss Veronica Mohr, chairman for the pilgrimage here, and there will be five places on display for the first time which will add considerable interest to the 1964 tour.

A motorcade will form at 9 a.m. at the Bay highway bridge. Miss Mohr suggests all persons planning to make the pilgrimage join in the motorcade to amplify the occasion. Plans will be the home of Mrs. L. W. Seal at 408 North Beach where coffee will be served at 9:30 a.m. (Cont. on Page 7.)

be the recently restored home at 806 North Beach owned by Mr. and Mrs. Hunter S. Kimbrough. Next stop will be the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Gex at 224 North Beach which is on part of an early land grant in Bay St. Louis. Assisting as hostesses there will be Mesdames V. A. Leveau, A. G. Dantagnan, E. M. Brignac, W. (Cont. on Page 7.)

GEIGER DISPLAYS TREASURES FROM ART COLLECTION

For some reason we just can't seem to get started this week. It shouldn't be too difficult as a few rays of sunshine filter through the clouds, narcissi, flowering quince and camellias are blooming profusely and even a few baby leaves are budding on the trees. Usually just the promise of spring's approach is enough to send us into a frenzy of writing. Undoubtedly the loss of five very good friends in just one short week accounts for this feeling of depression. James McConnell, Vladimir Fucich, Pete Chinnich, Dick Daley and Johnny Horlock will all be sadly missed by everyone who knew them.

About all our ailing friends

Guess we're also worried about Caroline Kiefer who had been looking so lovely and seemed so happy in her new job as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. She was seriously ill Friday night but is reported to be much improved at present.

We also want to send get well wishes to Mrs. Sylvester Benigno who was taken to Hancock General after suffering a heart attack last week, to Kary Goodwin who had major surgery at the same hospital last Tuesday, to Mrs. John Russell whose operation was postponed to allow her to recover from a severe cold and most belatedly to Sidney Woods who has returned to work after being ill with pneumonia last week. Also late, but hope Miss Henrietta Mohr is also well on the road to complete recovery from a leg injury suffered in a fall at her home recently.

Marian Oiestad is at home relaxing after three weeks of traveling took her to Florida, New Orleans and Thibodaux, La.

A very happy, if belated birthday greeting to the boss, Powell Glass, Jr., who cut his cake sporting seven candles on Friday, Feb. 21.

Col. Axster is one of the more patriotic Wavelanders. His flag followed gracefully Saturday in honor of George Washington's birthday.

On the waiting list

Inez Bourdin has joined the ranks of maternal bowlers as she's expecting the arrival of her fourth child in late spring and Merle Steffell, her slender self once again, is just awaiting her doctor's go ahead to resume bowling again.

Gay Coe Beyer, who is happily anticipating the arrival of her first child in May, was feted at a lovely baby shower given by Edith Davis and Agnes Bourn at the Bay St. Louis Youth Center at 3 p.m. Sunday.

A happy birthday wish goes to Tommy Bordages who was 11 on Friday. He celebrated the following day at a party at his Lakeshore home.

Sgt. A. J. Peterson, U.S. Marine Corps, wife Beryl and adorable adopted daughter, Laurie, arrived last week from Camp Lejeune, N. C. A. J. is Joyce (Mrs. Carl) Lacher's brother.

Accident victims

So sorry to hear that Ann Hutchinson suffered painful injuries in an automobile accident in the Pass on Sunday. Ann's recuperating in Gulfport Memorial.

Louella Culbreth also suffered head, neck and back injuries when her automobile was struck by another on Dunbar Avenue Friday afternoon. Louella, however, didn't let this keep her from entertaining at a family dinner Sunday at the Farrar Lane home in honor of son, Jeffrey Schultz, who left Monday for a Korean tour of duty.

New members of the Hancock General Hospital auxiliary were feted at Iva May McDonald's home Tuesday.

Birthday greetings, late as usual, go to Edwina Mogabgab who cut her cake on a famous date indeed, Feb. 22.

Anniversary bliss

Zora and Harold Carver celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary on the same date. It was quite a party despite the fact that it took place in the store. First five lovely roses and a double orchid corsage arrived. Then Harold produced champagne, caviar, hors d'oeuvres and even candlelight. Family members including Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Carver thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Joan and Harry Ward really had themselves a time last Saturday night. They were one of nine couples dining at Maison Beach House on Ponchartraine Blvd. The occasion was in honor of Jackson Brewery machinists who had completed ten years of work without losing an hour due to accidents. The party was given by the safety department, and Calvin Luc, department head, and Mrs. Luc were present. Another executive, John Edward and his lovely wife also attended.

To honor St. Patrick

Waveland's first St. Patrick's Day parade will take place on Sunday, March 15. It's to be led by a grand marshal... anyone interested may phone Jess Gaudet at H07-6306. In the meantime we'll try to dredge up a few more details.

Quite a crew assembled at Clarisse and Oswald Villere's Saturday night to help Russell Elliott celebrate his birthday at a surprise party. "Doc" Bosch furnished a whole pig which Clarisse roasted in addition to cooking up a number of other delicacies. Of course Marion was there, Doc's wife Terri, Lorraine and Charlie Poelson, plus many more.

Leaving Friday for San Antonio, Tex., were Frances (Mrs. Tony) Comprea, daughter Marcia, sons Bobby and Tony and Sandra Swenson. They visited another son, Donald, who's stationed at Ft. San Houston, and who happens to be engaged to Sandra. Frances and the children returned early Monday, and Sandra, who is on vacation, remained for a few more days.

Dick Thomas is in line for hearty congratulations... he was elected president of the Alumni (M) club at a weekend meeting at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

Spotted Winkie and Jack Heller's distinctive orchid convertible for the first time in many weeks... we were beginning to worry about them.

Guess who?? which Waveland town marshal now insists he's related to tv charmer, Ellis Mae Clumbert, who in real life happens to be married to a Mr. Bonigants? In case anyone needs a stronger hint his initials are F. B. J.

Insurance is a simple subject

In recent years insurance has become a highly technical subject. It's harder than to know if you have enough insurance for your family—home—car or business. For advice you need to determine if you have coverage—and the right kind—why not today? There is no obligation.

Pot and kettle

For some months now we haven't seen any article criticizing our youth for poor manners, inconsiderateness or similar errors. Perhaps we've been reading the wrong publications or, highly unlikely, the teenager has done an about face and is now the model of politeness. Whatever the reason we're glad for the respite from this chant if only to similarly comment on non-youth in our own area.

Inconsiderateness in any field is, of course, a failing and all of us should try to avoid acting in that way. In automobile operation it is considered a major cause of accidents and it is in that connection we think a lot of Hancock Countians, probably including ourselves, need some self appraisal.

It is generally admitted that the small town person, much more than his big city counterpart, is insistent on parking right in front of where he or she is going. In fact, most of us walk when in New Orleans automatically walk distances several times as long as the short hops for which we use a car in Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

Probably the area around the post office is where this trait of laziness shows up most around here. And the laziness is frequently accentuated to impoliteness and inconsiderateness. The double parking while the driver goes into the post office is just one of many, if extreme, illustrations you see time and time again each day. With the traffic congestion increasing rapidly here the problem grows daily.

It is our observation that the teen-agers and even those in the twenties and thirties are not the major offenders. Most of the time it is some one our age or more the mature mature. If this is true nationally maybe that's why the articles criticizing youth have dropped off in number. The pot is tired of calling the kettle black.

J. Cox, Charles B. Dickinson, Lucien M. Cox, Jr., and Gerald C. Cox.

An interesting collection of art and artifacts will await visitors at the studio home of Robert J. Geiger, 736 Waveland Beach, a specialist in restoration of paintings. Receiving pilgrims there will be Mesdames W. L. McFarland, Norman Renshaw, Al Wright, Joseph Kerr, Winkrop Baker, John Landon, H. M. Keefe and Richard Stamm.

Reservations are being taken for luncheon at Haverty's Restaurant on Coleman Avenue by planning Mrs. Lester Haverty at HO 7-9200. Town and Country Garden Club will supply those hostesses with Mesdames Edward LeVasseur, Harry Von Aatz and Samuel Masfere in charge.

In the afternoon the tour will go to the Perrillat home on Nicholson Avenue and the Walter P. Villere estate at 250 Waveland Beach where Bay-Waveland Garden Club will serve tea.

tion is being changed to permit counties and municipalities to levy one mill for that purpose. John A. Scalfide, Bay St. Louis mayor, joined French in asking that an additional levy be authorized but suggested the amount be limited to one-half mill. Daley indicated the A and I board would make this change in the proposed statute.

Others from Hancock County attending the meeting were Mayor Garfield Lader, Waveland, W. Ray Gordon, president of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

Bay continues to pace area

Bay St. Louis widened its margin as the leader among area cities in economic growth in December, according to figures made public this week by Mississippi Business Review, published by Mississippi State University.

On the basis of 1956-58 equalizing 100 Bay St. Louis' index for December was 190 compared to 172 in November and 147 for December 1962. Pass Christian with figures of 175, 152 and 138 was second, followed by Piquette, 155, 163 and 123, and Poplarville, 155, 156 and 134.

OLG club hears state school head

Rev. Joseph Koury, diocesan superintendent of Catholic Schools from Jackson, spoke to the Parents Club of Our Lady of the Gulf School at its monthly meeting on Feb. 20. He stressed that parents should teach their children respect for authority and set the example for them. Parents must be interested in their children's school and school work, he declared.

John Rutherford gave a report on the success of the dinner given on Jan. 29. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Buehler were awarded a prize for selling the most tickets.

Next project will be the comic variety show which will be at 8 p.m. March 15 at St. Joseph Academy gym. Mrs. Harris Boudreaux was named chairman of the event.

Joe Marchino spoke on the proposed sewerage and water program and the club endorsed it.

Mrs. John Sciamma's 6-B class won the attendance prize and Mrs. Leo Koerner won the door prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Huss of South Street, Waveland, were among guests at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Seals.

clerk job; a five-year exchange plan for appliances in the home economics department; expanded vocational-agricultural facilities; a complete line of chemicals for science classes, black-out room for showing films, venetian blinds and blacktopping around the school along with more bleacher seats in the gym and on the football field.

Superintendent Lader suggested that the bus shop for the school system which is proposed at North Central might be secured as pre-fabricated unit as he understands some uniform plans are available at considerable saving.

Lakeshore woman, Sun. crash sends 2 to hospital

Mrs. Ann Hutchinson, 81, of Lakeshore, received a neck laceration and abrasions of the face and leg Sunday when the car she was driving collided with a Mississippi Highway Patrol car on U. S. 90 at Pine Street west of Pass Christian.

Driver of the patrol car, state patrolman Travis L. Lott, 43, received a cut lip, tongue laceration and leg bruises. Both were taken to Gulfport Memorial Hospital, Lott being released after emergency treatment while Mrs. Hutchinson went home early this week.

District Eight Inspector Marion R. L. Blackwell and Joseph A. Pol, investigating officers, said the patrol car was headed west on U. S. 90 at 11:25 a.m. Sunday when the Hutchinson car, traveling east, made a left turn into the west-bound lane in the path of the patrol car.

Mrs. Hutchinson's car, a 1955 Plymouth, was listed by officers as a total loss and the patrol car, a 1963 Chevrolet, sustained about $1,200 damage. It was the third wrecked patrol car within two days.

Dorothy Payton, passenger in a car driven by James M. Payton, 506 Booker St., Bay St. Louis, suffered a minor laceration of the forehead in a three-car accident on U. S. 49 about 200 feet south of the Perdue overpass in Stone County at 6:50 p.m. Friday, state highway patrolmen Irvin Rippey and Dan Vernon reported. She was not hospitalized.

Officers said the Payton car rammed into the rear of another car as both were traveling north, both cars being total losses. A third car traveling south, received minor damage when bumped by the other two vehicles.

amounts to 12.86 inches in the first two months of 1964.

Meanwhile Chicago Bridge and Iron Co. of New Orleans this week got a $4,489,000 contract for remodeling eight rocket propellant barges for use at MTO.

Five of the fuel barges will be used to transport liquid oxygen and three to transport liquid hydrogen from contractor storage facilities external to MTO to the testing facilities in the Saturn V complex. The liquid oxygen barges will hold 105,000 gallons of fuel and the hydrogen ones will have a 270,000 gallon capacity.

The MTO public information office said Wednesday there has been no word yet from Air Products and Chemicals, Inc., of Allentown, Pa., which has been selected to supply liquid hydrogen for the tests, where it will locate its plant for the operation.

The Corps of Engineers has called for bids March 12 at its district office in Mobile for construction of outside utilities for several buildings in the laboratory and engineering complex and vicinity.

Utilities to be constructed include high temperature water lines for heating, communication duct banks, and electrical duct banks for the Data Handling Center; communication duct banks and an electrical conduit for the Central Control Building; and portable water lines and fire hydrants for these two buildings and also for the Laboratory and Engineering Building and the Central Heating Plant.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Annual Spring Garden Pilgrimage will take place in our City on the 10th day of March, 1964, in which numerous visitors will participate, and

WHEREAS, the City of Bay St. Louis, being one of the oldest towns on the Gulf Coast with all of its natural beauties, and

WHEREAS, in the interest and welfare of the City of Bay St. Louis, the natural beauties of our fair City should be preserved, and

WHEREAS, the Bay-Waveland Garden Club and the civic minded people of Bay St. Louis are interested in the beauty and cleanliness of the City and are desirous that a "Clean-Up" Campaign be initiated

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT OFFICIALLY PROCLAIMED that the week of March 1st thru the 9th, be officially designated as "Limer Bug" week and the entire population of our City is urged to take such necessary steps and measures in order to clean-up and beautify the City so that guests of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club may be impressed as to the cleanliness and beauty of our City.

WITNESS MY SIGNATURE and the Official Seal of the City of Bay St. Louis, this 25th day of February, A. D. 1964.

40 BHS girls in spring

Bay High's football squad, currently in the Gulf Coast Conference last year, announced their second week of spring training with 40 boys out, coaches Lance Lumpkin and Luke Caruso announced.

Nine boys will be lost through graduation, including seven first string men, but only one backfield starter is gone. Lumpkin said he is worried about the line, losing six out of seven starters.

Last year's first stringers seeing action are Johnny Pennington, qb; Stanley Baruch, rb; Mike Strong, lb; and Eugene Raymond guard. Pennington and Baruch are juniors, Strong and Raymond sophomores.

Other lettermen out for practice are Louie Schultz, qb; Gary Fricks and Dick Mastayer, rb; Larry Johnson, c and place kicker; Bruce Kleinhans and Jimmy Rutherford, t, and Bruce Cox, Walter Gagnon and Albert Von Antz, g.

JCs sponsor sanitation survey in Bay

A sanitation inspection and survey of Bay St. Louis will begin next week by the State Board of Health at the request of the Bay Jaycees as sponsoring organization and the county health department.

A fact sheet in their findings is to be completed in time for distribution before the $5 million utility bond issue, according to Andre Arceaux of the Jaycees. Complete recommendations for correcting deficiencies will be furnished later for the city officials and county which the Jaycees plan to use for follow-up work.

Wayne Allison, county sanitarian, said three men from the state office will check yards and lots starting March 3 and expect to complete the study by March 13.

AWARDED MEDAL

Maj. John Hale Pearson of New Orleans, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pearson of Victoria Drive, Bay St. Louis and brother of Mrs. A. D. A PUBLIC STATEMENT BY HANCOCK COUNTY PHYSICIANS ON THE PROPOSED SEWERAGE SYSTEM FOR BAY ST. LOUIS

The lack of a Sewage System in Bay St. Louis hardly needs comment to anyone. However, the time has now come where the solution to the problem is in your hands, and we want to make it abundantly clear to doctors feel about this problem. Frankly, we have made no comment in the past (although you have no doubt heard us individually cause the situation besides being dangerous almost constitutes a disgrace. Furthermore we were aware of the continual efforts of the City and City Council to solve the problem.

NOW, IT IS UP TO YOU. The obvious remedy is the construction of adequate sewage disposal system. This costs money - your money.

We make no recommendations about the details for financing, construction or other particulars but must rely on our public officials and their expert professional advisors. We do recommend that a sewage disposal system is urgently and immediately needed.

When considering the dollar cost of construction on one hand and the health hazards of not going on with the program, what is the cost to health hazards? What is your personal expense for a "minor" even if hospitalization is not required? What would be the cost to you individually or to the community generally if our public beaches are polluted against? We physicians are proud of this and your full cooperation in removing the threat of pollution. We challenge you to be as cooperative in an even more important project.

The different age groups will compete in softball sponsored by St. Clare's CYO. The first meeting was held Monday night at the parish hall. All boys and girls in the parish, from seven years through high school, regardless of religion are invited to attend the next meeting on Saturday, March 21. The time will be announced later.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howard of Clermont Harbor were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Muller and daughters Cindy and Patsy of Kansas City, Mo.

Zelma (Mrs. George) Stelz, now in her 14th year as Hancock County cancer education chairman has asked us to pass on the message that she will show a film on cancer in women immediately following the meeting of St. Joseph Academy Parents Club to be held in the dining room at 2 p.m. Tuesday. A local doctor will be present to answer questions about the film.

School opens

Registration is now being accepted for St. Clare's very fancy new school. It's to boast central heat, air conditioning, modern cafeteria, spacious classrooms, etc. Parents may register their children after mass on Sunday and after 1 p.m. every day except Wednesday.

Two bits of really good news...two local residents have returned home from Magee after doctors there discovered they did not have tuberculosis. T. A. Smith of Clermont Harbor was in reality suffering from pneumonia and Roddy Henley had a severe case of bronchitis. Incidentally they're both feeling fine.

Also we're very happy to hear that Max Giamelloni visited Brother Athanasius last Monday and reports him to be improving.

Ruth Landry called all excited about the marriage of her nephew Dale Chase, a former Waveland summer resident...in fact she was so excited that she forgot the bride's name!

Pvt. Frank P. Balford, Jr., U. S. Army, has completed basic training at Ft. Polk, La., and after advanced infantry training will go to Ft. Benning, Ga., for paratrooper instruction. Frank spent a weekend leave with his mother, Meg, and had as his guest Pvt. Dennis Givens of Lubbock, Tex. Meg also entertained her niece, Mrs. T. J. Plushat, Mr. Plushat and son Tommy of Baton Rouge over the weekend.

Marilyn (Mrs. Kenny) Fayard is recuperating from recent knee surgery at the home of her mother, Gladys Noonan. Don't know if this is a record or not, but Donald Rabb, Jr. got his first haircut at the age of four months. Mrs. Rabb is the former Sally Yarborough, daughter of Edna and Claude Yarborough of Waveland.

Milton (Bud) Favre says wife Ruth is feeling fine despite her broken foot, but is about ready to crawl the walls as a result of the enforced inactivity.

Polly Fagen returned from Tampa, Fla., last Monday and very truthfully reported that her third grandchild, little Leslie Lucas, looks 'just like a baby'!

Miss Bailey is wed to Mr. Ladner

Of interest here is the marriage of Miss Carol Beth Bailey of West Point, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bailey, Jr., of that city, to Clarence M. Ladner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ladner of Fenton, which was solemnized Feb. 1 in West Point.

Rev. A. V. Brown, pastor of West Point Methodist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony in the parsonage.

Miss Linda McCallister of West Point was the bride's only attendant. William Crain of Dothan, Ala., was Mr. Ladner's best man.

The bride is a graduate of West Point High School and attended Mississippi State College for Women.

Mr. Ladner, grandson of Mrs. E. A. Middleton of 108 State St., and the late Mr. Middleton and of O.M. Ladner of Fenton and the late Mrs. Ladner, was graduated from Pass Christian High School and attended Mississippi State University.

The couple is at home in Jackson where both have positions with Southern Bell Telephone Co.

N-S game draws record audience

North and South basketball squads split a double-header Tuesday night in Valera C. Jones gymnasium before a record crowd of about 1,400, the South girls taking the opener 40-32 and the North boys winning the nightcap 63-60 in a nip and tuck affair.

The South squad was composed of players from Jones, Pass Christian and Wiggins, the North from Purvis, Poplarville and Lucedale.

During halftime ceremonies Jones coach Willie Bradley, who had previously been voted conference all-star coach of the year, was presented a trophy by principal J. S. Price as a token of appreciation from the Jones boys and girls squads, both teams having won the South Mississippi Athletic Conference championships. Co-captain Sullivan Bell accepted the Visitation trophy won by his team Feb. 15.

Although the regular season is complete, both teams will represent South Mississippi in the South Zone Tournament at Brookhaven, the girls playing the winner of the Southern Belt Conference at 9 a.m. March 6 and the boys meeting the winner of the Southwest Conference at noon.

Last game of the season will be at 7:30 p.m. March 9 in the Jones gym when girls squads picked from Jones and St. Rose de Lima will vie in the opener followed by a game between Jones and St. Rose players and a Bay St. Louis all-star group headed by coach Bradley. Parents of players will be admitted free.

High scorers for the South all-stars Tuesday were Eartha Dorsey 14 points, Marilyn Price

Rock 11 games listed

Twenty-five boys are out for spring football workouts at St. Stanislaus College, coach Billy Murphy reports.

Schedule is Sept. 11, Shaw of New Orleans, here; 18, Ben Franklin of New Orleans, here; 25, open; Oct. 2, Ocean Springs, here; 9, at Thibodaux; 16 at St. Bernard; 23, at Buras; 30, d'Iberville, here; Nov. 6, Van Cleave, here, and 12, Notre Dame of Biloxi, here.

Probable team members are Curtis Matherne and Eddie Hilliard, quarterbacks; Bud Antia, Doc Rhodes, Mike Griffin, Eddie Rossburg, Larry McBride, Robert Tessier, Bang Favre and Sidney Ourso, half or fullbacks; Dale Burke, Steve Favolosa, Bryon Cambas and Allan Bell, ends; Paul Weaver, John Gamaway, Paul Peligrin, Dan Griffin and Tom Troxler, tackles; Lenny Aucoin, Ossie Blaize and Martin Venezia, guards; Niel Flick, Tom Jeansonne and Rene Guas, centers.

CASE DISMISSED

A charge of obtaining money under false pretense against Robert L. Proctor was dismissed Tuesday night by Best 5 JP Nolan Lader when Houston Jackson, who filed the charges, failed to appear. Proctor and Jackson said they were house movers, having moved a home belonging to Lois Rhodes, Negro, from the MTO area to a site in Best 5. Proctor allegedly having collected $590 from the Rhodes woman.

both of Wiggins, followed by J. W. Fickie 8 and Cleveland Williams 6.

The South girls led in the first quarter 10-3 and increased it to 13-9 at halftime but the North scored baskets at 23-29 at the end of the third but could only score 3 points in the final while the South racked up 11.

Although it was a close battle all the way, the North boys got off to a 17-13 lead in the first quarter and maintained quarter leads of 36-32 and 50-46.
